

Afternoon Tea for Homeless Oxfordshire

Hold a tea party to help people recover from homelessness
Tea, cake, sandwiches, cold drinks what's not to love!

Afternoon tea despite the name can be held at anytime to suit you. It is easy to get involved just read or download this information.

Before your tea party or coffee morning check out our fundraising planner that has lots of tips on how to plan a fundraiser and the things you may need to consider on our fundraising page.

Recipe for success

A drop of inspiration

plan a few lines to encourage conversation about how your actions today will help people to recover from homelessness. You can always play one of our youtube video's as they tell you lots about who we are and what we do.

A dash of Fundraising

To boost your donations why not include fun activities and competitions like 'guess the weight of the cake' or host a bake off and have guests vote for their favourite. Why not see if local businesses will donate some prizes? Create a collection tin from an old jar - ask us for a logo to use.

Essential ingredients to remember

Food and drink – as you're likely to be selling treats it is essential to label things for allergens. Head over to the Food Standards Agency for further advice.

Social media – spread the word by setting up a Facebook event page and let us know how your fundraising activity is going with regular updates – remember to tag us so we can see what you're up to and say thank you!

Optional extra's

Double your money – ask your team of helpers if they work for a company that offers matched giving for charity and encourage them to apply if they do.
Licences – check what licences will be required. For example, selling alcohol and playing music both require a license.

We support homeless people to help get them back on their feet. Our approach is founded on expertise, lived experience and a track record of success. We're passionate about making a lasting difference to people in Oxfordshire who are experiencing homelessness.

We find ways to help everyone who is referred to us. No exceptions. Where others find despair, we find hope and the opportunity for a fresh start and a journey back into a more stable living environment.

We are fearless in our commitment to tackling the many challenges of homelessness. We believe that everyone is equal and has a right to love, respect and help when they need it most.

We're the largest accommodation provider for homeless people in the county. But we also know that tackling homelessness is about much more than a roof over your head.

Your support will help people to recover from homelessness
