Location:	Oxford
Date produced:	24/05/2022	Date for review:	24/05/2023

About us:

Homeless Oxfordshire Ltd is a registered charity working across the county with people who are facing homelessness. We provide a range of accommodation with access to high quality support, offering a safe and welcoming space for people to take control of their own lives.

We strive to provide a greater level of psychologically informed support in the right environments for some of the most vulnerable people across the county. A large part of our future plans involve the acquisition of new properties and the development of existing accommodation, and in order to do this we need to increase the amount we raise through voluntary income.

Main purpose of job:

This role is responsible for delivering a safe and supportive service to all residents living at O'Hanlon House in Oxford. The role holder needs to work alongside the team and external agencies to ensure the effective delivery of high quality care, support and housing management according to Homeless Oxfordshire Policies and Procedures.

Our Values:

Homeless Oxfordshire strives to be effective, appropriately challenge people and systems, inspire clients, our partners, and each other. We are responsive to need and compassionate. Above all we are brave and will not give up on people that society may have left behind.
